

WAC church - outgrowth of a Sunday school, The school organized June 10, 1864, in a house on the corner of Woodier & Pauline streets. A weekly prayer-meeting followed, & as the #s increased, clergymen in the city & students of the Theological Seminary preached Sunday evening. 3/23/1870, a church was constituted, consisting of ~~installed members~~ 62 mbrs. Oct 31, 1871 Frank H. Buttern ordained & installed pastor. July 11, 1873 he dismissed to take another charge. Successor - James B. Gregg - ordained & installed Sept 29, 1874. Church grew & strengthened - Society debts pd. 1882 Gregg accepted chrg in Colorado Springs. - dismissed 1882. The Rev. Charles E. Stowe, now pastor of the church (1886 = now) he was installed Jan 10, 1883. Present mbr ship

271 "The Corporation" - Know as Pavilion Congregational Society

It was organized Dec 10, 1870, & owns the house of worship occupied by the church. The bldg is constructed of brick, is ~~now~~ modern in its form & convenience, & is particularly well adapted to church purposes; it was dedicated in June 26, 1872."

The Memorial Hstry of Htfd County

Corrct 1633-1884

Edited by J. Hammond Trumbull LL.D.

in Two Vol Vol. 1

Boston Edward L. Osgood Publisher 1886

8
1
The corporation is known as the Pavilion Congregational Society. It was organized Dec 10, 1870, and owns the house of worship occupied by the church. This bldg is constructed of brick, is modern in its form & convenience, & is particularly well adapted to church purposes; it was dedicated June 26, 1872.

Oldham Congregational Church
Tulst St Church - 1st composed of 7 mbrs, who came by letter from the Congregational church in the ~~vicinity~~ vicinity, was organized on the 28th day of Aug, 1833. The Rev. Joel Hawes, D. D., pastor of 1st church conducted the service, assisted by the pastor of the second church. For time w/o settled pastor, & was supplied by several ministers. Tuesday 16/1840 the Rev Pannington installed. Present pastor Rev. W.W. Mallory. The Society owns, free of incumbrance, the house of worship used by the church.